....how enthusiastic I am about your 'Reflection' ...rich and active with an off-beat character.

Nothing orthodox, conformist from the down the line provincial Irish Australian!...

...'Reflection' is very sensual; erotic. Everywhere relationships of luscious pink crimson/dark crimson spaces with an elliptical element;

...the 'alter' at the end of the aisle very clitoral in its reference/shapes; but also when seen less distinctly as phallic;...

...the 'glow' lines are markers of exhilarating erotic experience – of the orgasm!

Religious experience as orgasmic experience!
