The Woolloongabba Art Gallery is proud to present the opening of ‘Kulai Pathadin’ (first cut)

The Art of Dennis Nona

(the artist will be present)

6:30pm on Friday 24th of February

24th February ~ 2nd April

It is rare to find an artist at the cutting edge. Kulai Pathadin (first cut) is a survey exhibition, collected over two years in support of Dennis whilst at the Queensland College of Art where he has been completing his postgraduate studies. The exhibition also provides a professional environment for Dennis's final critiques. Kulai Pathadin heralds a new direction for Dennis where the figurative nature of his line has been used to convey the abstraction of patterning associated with his cultural designs. An interpreter as much as a storyteller, Nona is an artist who is translating the worlds of the Torres Strait Islands.

A curatorial lecture (rsvp) will be presented by the artist the following Saturday 4th of March at 1.00pm
