exhibition dates

7 April – 29 April 2017

opening date

Saturday afternoon, 8 April 3pm – 6pm sub-urban is a collection of recent paintings and prints by Chase Archer. Archer describes his work as painted collages assembled from a bank of iPhone images, childhood photographs, drawings, mass media and the historic art canon. These images provide the framework for scenes exploring the suburban condition. “With these works, the inter-relationship of the images become key. Sometimes you can say a lot with very few images, a kind of shorthand which can tap into a variety of memories and emotions.”
