Extends an invitation to the opening of

‘Made In Taiwan’

the work of

Rhett Haverly

6:30pm on Friday 12th of August

at the Woolloomgabba Art Gallery
613 Stanley St, Woolloomgabba

If we need to identify our regional landscapes north beyond our waters, then I’d suggest we send artists instead of soldiers. Artists are our heroes or at least could be, their journeys made epic from the tales they return to tell.

‘Made In Taiwan’
is an exhibition of collaged junk-mail,
by Rhett Haverly, a young artist from Caboolture who tried to piece together a sense of it all.

A curatorial lecture (rsvp 07 3891 5551) will be presented with Rhett Haverly the following Saturday 20th of August at 1:00pm.

August 12th ~ September 11th 2005
