Across Country is the result of extensive journeys Tania Cleary and her family made between 2005 and 2006 across central and Western Australia.

A former collections manager at the Australian Museum and curator of exhibitions, like 'Poignant Regalia', Cleary found that major themes such as the notion of country, memory and cultural inheritance paramount to a new generation of painters emerging across the interior of Australia.

A curatorial lecture will be given by Tania Cleary on Saturday 12th of April at 1.00pm
