

‘MOTHER EARTH COMING TOGETHER FOR ALL CHILDREN’ BUJANG JARAH BULKARI TACO JAHJUM NU

Ephemeral Sand Art Exhibition by Craig Tapp

Exhibition Dates: 29 October ~ 9 November 2013
Official Opening: Friday 1 November 6:30pm – 9:30pm
613 Stanley St, Woolloongabba Qld 4102

To be opened by esteemed Moorgumpin Elder Uncle Bob Anderson

RSVP acceptances by Wednesday 30 October 2013 ~ email: mkthedecks@bigpond.com
Refreshments provided

Craig Tapp is a descendant of the Indigenous people of Moreton Bay Region, Quandamooka Yuli Burri Bah, “Place of the people of the land and sea”. Craig is a Nuggi Nunnucal man who lives on North Stradbroke Island. Craig is an Artist of many talents who has been working with students from Cleveland State High School and Carinity Education Southside, creating their own Sand Art Designs which have been photographed, enlarged and framed to be showcased alongside Craig’s sand art work at the exhibition. The Exhibition has been made possible by funding from Redland City Council who is proud to provide sponsorship support for the “Mother Earth Coming Together for all Children project” as part of the Community Grants Program to assist the Redlands Community Arts and Culture sector.

The exhibition will be on display at the Cleveland Library 10 February – 24 February 2014

Invitation Image Sand Art Design by Elodie Rousseau; Photographer: Laura Randall

This Exhibition is in honour of John Tapp showcasing a life size portrait in his honour by Andrea Crosser
Project Coordinator: Carolyn Hoernel

Sponsored by: Sibelco Australia Limited, Redland City Council Conservation Grant & RedArts – Redlands Arts Council

