

woolloomgabby art gallery

© Elizabeth Nyumi

Journey Of A Young Soul

Raising Awareness And Funds
To Support Indigenous Foster Kids

Opening Friday 17th June @ 6:00pm

2nd June ~ 25th June 2011

woolloomgabby art gallery

JOURNEY OF A YOUNG SOUL

Raising Awareness And Funds To Support Indigenous Foster Kids

Opening 6.00pm - 9.00pm

*on Friday 17th June

2nd June ~ 25th June 2011

Woolloomgabby Art Gallery and m247kids present the fund raising event, 'Journey Of A Young Soul'.

M247kids raise awareness to support displaced foster children and their needs. They work alongside existing not-for-profit organisations that currently provide support for displaced foster children and profile circumstances that we could assist with financially. The purpose of m247kids is to provide foster children who are not able to return to their home, support and financial assistance for further study and health care.

Supporting the great work of YALARI Limited, we aim to raise $25,000 to support one Aboriginal foster child through school.

image details: Elizabeth Nyumi, Parwalla 2008, Acrylic on linen, 120 x 80 cm

Woolloomgabby Art Gallery ~ 613 Stanley Street Woolloomgabby Q 4102
Wednesday to Saturday 10am - 5pm
Enquiries (07) 3891 5551 ~ email@wag.com.au ~ www.wag.com.au