

Form Two Orderly Queues

Barry Tate
&
Glenn Morgan

Opening
Friday night
3rd July 6pm - 9pm

Exhibition Dates
30th June ~ 25th July 2015

Tate and Morgan's work could be described as dynamic, vibrant, humorous, challenging, thought provoking, energetic.. definitely not safe. With wide and varied technique Glenn has been described as an artist who can frighten a laugh out of you with hard hitting social commentary while Barry's work has a religious element but has been described as more casino than cathedral. An overall description of the pairs work could be no fear and more about trying to take the viewer somewhere rather than making wall candy.
