9th March ~ 21st April 2007

Woolloomgabby Art Gallery is pleased to open our fourth year's exhibition calendar with a new wave of artists from the Mornington Island Art Centre, Woomera Aboriginal Corporation. Lardil, Kaiadilt, Yangkaal features the work of four female artists, Karen Chong, Joelene Roughsey, Paula Paul and Thelma Burke. At the centre of art practice on Mornington Island is MIAAC. The art centre's growth now provides opportunities to artists of three language groups who live on Mornington Island and recently has expanded its operations to support other communities in the Gulf of Carpentaria, including Normanton.

A curatorial lecture (rsvp) will be presented the following Saturday
17th of March at 1.00pm
