

STEPHEN NOTHLING

'Bellevue'

Opening event
Saturday afternoon, 15 May from 3pm

Exhibition dates
7 May – 19 June 2021

Bellevue, after Bellevue Street, Highgate Hill, is an exhibition of paintings inspired by 'your common and garden variety' streetscapes observed by artist Stephen Nothling on his meanderings through the suburbs of Brisbane's inner South. Each expansive landscape is paired with an intimate fragment of floral imagery captured from the front gardens of houses he passes along the way.
